

Friends of the Leelanau Township Library in Northport Summer Writers Series

Join us at the Northport Arts Association Building
Tuesday nights at 7:30 pm. Free to book lovers!
301 North Mill Street
Northport MI 49670

July 6 Richard VanDeWeghe

A talented teacher, writer, and novelist, will transport you into the world of a huge canvas of institutional life more than 140 years ago.

July 13 Cari Noga

Cari Noga will bring her novelist's heart and voice to be heard in "The Orphan Daughter" and "Sparrow Migration".

July 20 Robert Giles

Author of "When Truth Mattered", questioned by veteran journalist and author James Tobin, will hold you captured by life and death during turbulent times in our history with truth as the objective of news reporting.

July 27 Anne-Marie Oomen

Poet, writer, story teller, and multi-winner of Michigan's Creative Non-fiction Award, promises that this prize-winning collection will approach Michigan from an atomic level.

Leelanau Township Library
119 E Nagonaba ST
Northport, MI

For more information call the library at 231.386.5131