

Friends of the Leelanau Township Library Summer Writers' Series 2023

July 11 In Memory of Nancy Giles:

Dave Dempsey - "Great Lakes for Sale"

In Great Lakes for Sale, Dave Dempsey offers surprising, even controversial, ideas on how to prevent the fulfillment of a nightmare scenario. They include an attack on water commercialization, curbing abuse of the Great Lakes Compact, and devising plans for limited sharing of the Great Lakes to forestall humanitarian disasters.

July 18 Jacob Wheeler

"Angel of the Garbage Dump: How Hanley Denning Changed the World, One Child at a Time"

Hanley Denning pulled thousands of children out of the desperate Guatemala City garbage dump and gave them a safe passage.

July 25 Sarah Shoemaker

"Children of the Catastrophe"

Children of the Catastrophe is a beautifully told story that unfolds through the experiences of the Melopoulos family—their loves and quarrels, their hopes and disappointments, played out against a world on fire.

August 1 Soon-Young Yoon

"Citizen of the World: Soon-Young and the U.N."

Citizen of the World is a collection of her reflections as a feminist who has worked both for the U.N. and for the international women's movement. She urges us to look at the world through women's eyes to see why gender equality matters.

All events start at 7pm and will be at:
Willowbrook Mill
